Summer was a delight to work with as we planned the program. And, since our planning started before COVID, she remained flexible to our date changes, presentation platform changes and live vs. hybrid vs. virtual changes. Can we say #Flexible

The M.A.G.I.C. of Leadership

Many managers look around and see leaders who are getting the results. From the outside looking in, it can appear that these leaders are performing magic. But like all good magic tricks, once you know how it is performed, it is easily replicated. This program will open you and your audience to the Magic of Leadership, an easy to implement model that shows how you and your organization can take very specific steps to create and maintain a high performing culture.

- Learn why managing yourself is a critical piece of leadership
- Discover why high morale is directly tied to holding employees accountable and receive actionable tips on how to do so in a professional and respectful way
- Understand why inspiration is so important and how it can drive your team to the next level

Creating Magic

What do the internet, the iPhone and MyMagic+ have in common? Each has revolutionized the customer experience. What makes some companies successful at rolling out new technologies? Is it magic? In this conversation, you will dive into change management utilized on the front lines of Disney.

- Learn why technology should not be the first answer to improving your Customer's Experience
- Discover why the most effective technology inspires customer buy in
- Understand the importance of having employees embrace new ideas during times of change

Summer would love to join you for keynote speeches, seminars or full day sessions. Above are just a few of the topics that can be covered. Looking for something unique or not listed? Let's talk!

Engaging, No Holds Barred Leadership Speaker

When Summer speaks at events or businesses, it's important that her audience feels truly connected, inspired and engaged and leaves with actionable take aways. She has learned through the years that there is no better way to connect with someone than through the power of authentic, no-holds-barred storytelling.

Maybe it's Summer's life long connection to great stories, maybe it's her years with one of the greatest story tellers, the Walt Disney Company, or maybe it's because she just loves people — but time and time again Summer hears from her audiences that her unique approach to storytelling helps put complex strategies into a clear and simple perspective they have never considered before.

So, what stories can Summer bring to your next event?

Support Beyond the "Lecture and Leave"

When you book Summer as a speaker, you are not just booking a talk...you're booking a partner. She takes the time at every event to make herself available to your audience beyond her time on stage.

From large events to smaller breakout sessions to one-on-one consultations and more, Summer's goal is your goal.

To have a successful, stress-free, and even...magical event.
